Bachelor of Design (Games)

Section 4: Applicant statement

Describe your reasons for applying for a degree in games, and briefly describe what you consider to be focus areas (e.g. visual art, narrative, criticism, environments, characters, sound, politics, modding, etc.) (maximum 300 words).

Section 5: Folio

In order for your selection task to be considered, you must include a folio of work.

Submit a folio of any creative work, either from your previous studies or personal projects. The work can be from any creative field, in any style or topic - not just games-focused. For example, a collection of artwork, pieces of writing, links to videos, or screenshots of finished games.

Submission instructions

- Upload your folio as a single PDF (no more than three pages).
- Embed links into the PDF if you feel they are more appropriate for your work, such as links to videos or playable games (no more than 3 links).
- Under each piece of work in the PDF, provide a short description of your artistic intentions and/or outline your creative process.
- Please ensure you write your full name and RMIT application number (if known) in the top right corner of all pages.

Section 6: Privacy notice

The information you provide in this form will be used by RMIT to assess your application for study and to administer any subsequent enrolment in accordance with RMIT's policies and procedures. Your personal information will be handled in accordance with the RMIT Privacy Statement.

The information you provide on this form and during enrolment may be made available to the Australian Government, State Agencies and other designated authorities under the ESOS Act 2000, ESOS Regulations 2001 and the National Code. Information about you can be disclosed without consent where authorised or required by law.

RMIT University's policies require that the information on this form be supplied. Please note that failure to do so, or to supply only part of it, may result in your application being unable to be considered. In addition, any offer of a place may be revoked, and enrolment cancelled if the information supplied is incomplete, false or misleading.

You can access and amend your information via the RMIT University Application System. For more information about how RMIT University collects, uses, discloses and stores your personal information, see the RMIT Privacy Statement www.rmit.edu.au/utilities/privacy.

Section 7: Applicant declaration

Please read and sign the following applicant certification. This application is not valid unless signed and dated.

I agree that:

- I have read and understood the RMIT Privacy Statement and accept its conditions.
- I will be bound by the statutes, regulations, standards of conduct and policies of RMIT as amended from time to time.
- I consent to receiving information electronically from the University.

I acknowledge that:

- The submission of incorrect or incomplete information may result in the withdrawal of any offer and/or cancellation of enrolment by RMIT at any stage.

I certify that:

- The information supplied in this form and any supporting documentation or materials is correct and complete.
- My response to questions and any work submitted as part of my application are my own original work.
- It is my responsibility to provide all relevant and required documentary evidence of my qualification/s.

I authorise RMIT to:

- obtain further information with respect to my submission from other organisations.
- provide information to government, educational, health and other relevant institutions, in the processing of, or in conjunction with, my application.
